OUR LOVE DIARY

TOGETHER FOREVER

ABOUT US

ABOUT HIM

♥ As a PR executive, I've always enjoyed writing and meeting people. I frequent a lot of social events and do a lot of networking, mostly for business contacts.

Hadn't had much luck or free time for that matter to get out and really live life. that is - until I met her.

ABOUT HER

♥ I work as a professional party planner, a passion I've crafted into a profession. It's nice being able to go all out and experience some really cool things, but it doesn't really amount to much.

I couldn't share it with someone special. And then he came along.

HOW WE MET

HIS STORY

♥ It's funny really. I met Tanya by chance at one of her events when my boss asked me to take some clients out. She was the host, greeting us at one point during the event; things sort of naturally took its course from there.

LOVE & JOY

HER STORY

♥ I knew Colin was checking me out the moment he walked in and he was really handsome that night. I was pretty nervous but I took the opportunity to at least say hi. We really hit it off from the moment we met.

HIS POINT OF VIEW
.....

♥ I asked her out a couple of times on the pretext of working out deals for my clients, but it quickly became obvious that we were both pretty interested in getting to know one another compared to sorting out work.

Appointments turned into dates and we just kind-of became exclusive.
